3. Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

A healthy lifestyle is a vital part of our lives. There are some things that we must do to lead a healthy life. The first thing to do is to ensure that you eat three meals a day. These meals should have the right amount of all the essential nutrients, such as carbohydrates, proteins, fats, minerals, and vitamins. You should not eat any junk food, which is unhealthy for you. The next thing is to exercise daily to maintain a healthy lifestyle. This can be jogging, running, playing sports, or even walking for a minimum of 30 minutes. You can go to work on foot to make use of time and activate your body at the same time. Exercise is essential not only for your health but also for your skin and hair to look more delightful.

For a healthy lifestyle, you should also get the right amount of sleep at night. The proper routine is to sleep early and wake up early, with a 7-8 hour period of rest. It is crucial to get enough sleep, but not too much or too little, as it can affect your concentration and abilities. Also, sleeping at night is more useful than sleeping during the day. A healthy lifestyle helps you live longer and have a better and happier life.

Choose the correct answer from a, b, c, or d:

3. Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

One day, Mr. Kamel was looking for a water source for his farm as he was starting a new project and expanding his land. He bought a well from his neighbor, Mr. David. The next day, when Mr. Kamel came to draw water from his well, the neighbor refused to let him take any water, claiming that he had sold the well, not the water inside. Mr. Kamel was a kind man, so he didn't fight.

He went to the mayor to ask for justice. He explained what had happened. The mayor called on Faheem, one of his nine wisest helpers. Faheem proceeded to question the neighbor, "Why don't you let Mr. Kamel take water from the well? You did sell the well to the farmer. So, he can draw water at any time."

The neighbor replied, "Faheem, I did sell the well to the farmer but not the water in it. He has no right to draw water from the well." Faheem said, "Look, since you sold the well, you have no right to keep the water in the farmer's well. Either you pay rent to the farmer, or take it out immediately." Realizing that his plan had failed, Mr. David apologized and went home. The mayor ordered his men to fine him for being cunning.

Sophia was first activated on February 14, 2016 and made its first public appearance in mid-March 2016 at South by Southwest in Austin, Texas, United States. The robot, modeled after the ancient Egyptian Queen Nefertiti, is known for its human-like appearance and behavior compared to previous robotic variants. As of 2018, Sophia's architecture includes scripting software, a chat system, and an AI system designed for general reasoning.

Sophia uses speech recognition technology from Alphabet Inc., which is the parent company of Google, and is designed to get smarter over time. Its speech ability is provided by a text-to-speech engine, and also allows it to sing. Sophia's intelligence software is designed by Hanson Robotics. The AI program analyzes conversations and extracts data that allows it to improve responses in the future.

Sophia was designed to be a suitable companion for the elderly at nursing homes, or to help crowds at large events or parks. The company has said they hope that the robot can ultimately interact with other humans sufficiently to gain social skills. Sophia is marketed as a "social robot" that can mimic social behavior and induce feelings of love in humans.

Eating a balanced diet is essential for maintaining good health. A healthy diet should include a variety of foods, such as fruits, vegetables, proteins, and whole grains. These foods provide the body with essential nutrients that help in growth, energy production, and disease prevention. Many health problems, such as obesity, diabetes, and heart disease, are linked to unhealthy eating habits. Consuming too much fast food, sugary drinks, and processed snacks can lead to serious health issues. On the other hand, eating natural, fresh foods can help maintain a strong immune system and keep the body in good shape.

Parents play an important role in shaping their children's eating habits. By preparing home-cooked meals and encouraging healthy snacks, they help their children develop good dietary practices from an early age. Schools also contribute by providing nutritious meals and educating students about healthy eating.

B Reading

3. Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

(7 Marks)

Reading is one of the most important skills a person can develop throughout their lifetime. It helps expand knowledge, improve vocabulary, and enhance imagination in ways that few other activities can match. People who read regularly tend to have better communication skills and a deeper understanding of the world around them. They can express their thoughts more clearly and engage in meaningful conversations about various topics.

Beyond academic and professional benefits, reading can also be a wonderful way to relax and unwind. Many people find that reading before bed helps them reduce stress and sleep better. Reading different types of books, such as fiction, history, science, or biography, can expose readers to new ideas and perspectives they might never encounter otherwise. A novel might teach empathy by letting you experience life through another person's eyes.

Nowadays, technology has made reading more accessible than ever before. E-books and audiobooks allow people to read anytime and anywhere, whether they are commuting on a bus, waiting at a doctor's office, or relaxing at home. Libraries and online platforms provide countless books for readers of all ages and interests, often free of charge. Whether you prefer paper books with their unique smell and feel or digital versions that can store thousands of titles in one small device, reading remains a gateway to endless learning and discovery.
