Weekly tests كل الاختبارات الأسبوعية

I went shopping last weekend. I bought some new clothes and a few books I've been wanting to read. I saw some interesting items at the market and spent time browsing around. I had lunch at a cozy café with friends, and we chatted for hours. It was a relaxing and fun day. I had a great time!

I would like to be healthy, I make sure to eat a balanced diet every day. I enjoy eating fruit and vegetables because they are packed with vitamins and minerals. I also include meat and fish in my meals for protein, and I drink milk and dairy products for calcium to keep my bones strong. I always have bread, cereals, and potatoes to give me energy for the day. By eating a variety of healthy foods, I feel better and stay active.

Egyptian farmers produce many things you see on the table. They grow bananas and potatoes, which are popular in many meals. They also raise chicken for meat and eggs, and cultivate onions that add flavor to dishes. Additionally, they grow rice, which is a staple food in Egyptian cuisine. These products are essential for the local diet and are enjoyed by many people.
