Though Mr. Ahmed told his wife that the trip into the middle of Africa to shoot wild animals would be very uncomfortable, it would be very hot and they would stay in a tent and it might be dangerous, she insisted on going with him. They bought a big tent, camp beds, a refrigerator which didn't need electricity and various other things and went off to there. Before going for hunt, Mr. Ahmed gave his wife a bell to use if she was in danger and needed him, then he left. After a few minutes, he heard the bell and returned quickly to the tent. "What's the matter?" He asked. "Nothing", said his wife. "I was only testing the bell." Mr. Ahmed went off, but after a quarter of an hour, the bell rang again Mr. Ahmed hurried back to the tent, but his wife said "I'm sorry. I was cleaning our tent, and I knocked the bell over by mistake." Mr. Ahmed returned to his hunting, but soon he heard the bell once more. This time, he got back to his camp. The tent was burning, and Mrs. Ahmed was lying on the ground, with blood running from a big cut on her shoulder "That's better!" said Mr. Ahmed. This time the bell had been used correctly.
