Yesterday, our teacher talked about how to keep our planet clean. She taught us about the 3Rs: Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle. Reduce means using less and not wasting water or electricity. Reuse means using things again, like refilling a bottle instead of throwing it out. Recycle means turning old things into new things, like paper or plastic. The teacher told students to use the 3Rs at school and at home. The students promised to help keep the planet clean.

Subject: Life in the city

Dear Nader,

How are you? I want to tell you about life in my city. Life in the city is different. People live in tall buildings. They use cars and buses to move. The city has a lot of noise and lights.

Yours,

Ali
