A review on Egyptian handicrafts

Egypt is famous for its beautiful handicrafts. The leather industry is one of the oldest handicrafts in Egypt and our bags are the best quality. The leather is very soft. In Egypt, they sell different types of pots in different colours. The artists paint the pots with traditional Arabic designs. Egypt has a long history of making beautiful carpets. People who live in the south of Egypt sell carpets, baskets and colourful pots. Some women in a village near Aswan make beautiful handicrafts from the leaves of trees. These handicrafts are very popular with tourists and help the Egyptians to earn money.

A review of my city

I live in Ismailia, which is between Port Said and Suez. Ismailia is beautiful. There are attractive buildings and interesting monuments. There isn't a lot of traffic so there isn't much pollution. There are lots of things to do here. On Monday afternoons, I often go fishing with my family. Ismailia has a beautiful lake and wonderful beaches. On Tuesday mornings, I have football lessons at the sports centre at 8 am. Sometimes I go swimming in the afternoon with my friends. There are also some interesting museums in Ismailia! My favourite is the Natural Science Museum because I'm interested in animals.

A review on something I bought online

Last week, I saw that my parents were interested to have a coffee machine. So, I decided to get them a good one. I bought it as a present for them. They were very happy with it. It helped mum make the coffee dad liked. It looked great in their kitchen and it was easy to use. It was also quiet. It made delicious cups of coffee. The delivery was quick, too! I only waited for one day! The price was really good. It was really a good day!

A review on something I have achieved

I write this review about something I have achieved. I was born in England. When I was a baby, my parents moved to Egypt. Before I started school, I learned to speak Arabic. It was nice to learn Arabic. Soon, I was able to read and write it well. When I started preparatory school, nobody knew that I was English! After my thirteenth birthday, I went to England and visited my cousins who still live there. Last year, they came to visit me in Egypt. They love it here!

A review on teenagers' problems

We all agree that teenagers face a number of problems. They usually get worried about their exams. They feel embarrassed about failing an exam. They don't want to disappoint their parents. They find it difficult to study some subjects. They are usually worried about doing a lot of homework. They try to be careful about who they should make friends with. Teenagers usually have different opinions about things, too. That makes some of them feel lonely. Teenagers should know how to cope with their problems. They should try to meet up with each other. They should ask their parents or teachers for advice.

"A review on what I can do to help people in my community"

I think our community is a part of our life and it is a must to cooperate for it and for solving the problems it suffers from. At my school, there are some students who have disabilities at different parts of their bodies. Some can't move, while others can't see well. I had an idea for helping them. I went to the school headmaster and suggested a way to help them and their parents to come to school. I suggested all students in all classes at school should donate money for building a special area for them and making special roads without stairs for them. The headmaster welcomed my idea and thanked me and promised that he will work for it.

A review on the Decent life Initiative

The Decent Life Initiative is a fantastic project. It aims to develop the poor villages of Egypt. It provides more health care, better education and better job opportunities. It repairs houses in poor villages. The Decent Life Initiative helps people to have clean water. It provides job opportunities to young people. It supports orphan girls to get married. It provides food for poor families. It sends doctors to the villages to deliver medicine and help people who are ill. It improves facilities for disabled people. It helps children to have better education by building schools in villages. Finally, we should support this initiative because it will make the future of our children better.

A review on means of transport

There are many different forms of transport. In Egypt, people use cars, trains, metro lines, ferries and buses. I love travelling by train because it's interesting to look out of the window. In one journey, you can see ferries crossing the Nile, green valleys, peaceful villages and busy cities. Trains are often fast and comfortable, too. Egypt has the oldest railway in Africa. More than 800 million passengers travel by train in Egypt every year. Lots of people in Alexandria use the tram to travel around the city. It's easy to use and it isn't expensive. Trams are electric, so they are better for the environment than other types of transport. Some of the trams have two floors! Most people in Cairo prefer travelling on the metro because it is fast, cheap and comfortable. In Egypt, some people go to work using public transport as buses.

A biography of a person I know (Your role model)

Muhammad Salah is a famous footballer. He was born in 1992 in Nagrig, Basiyoun, Gharbia. He grew up in a simple family. He loved football very much. He played for El-Mukawloun in Egypt. He became a professional player. He played for Basel, Rome, Chelsea and Liverpool. He got the best player in the premier League. Salah had a big role that the Egyptian team played in the World Cup finals in 2018. He had a great dream to play in the world cup again in 2022, but it was too difficult. The Italian media called Salah, "Egyptian Messi". Liverpool fans called him, "Egyptian King". As well as being a clever, fast player, Salah is loved because he is generous. He gives much money to charities and helps a lot of people all over Egypt.

A Short story you have read

I like reading very much. It's my favourite hobby. I want to tell you about a short story I have read recently. It is called "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer". Once upon a time, there was a little boy called Tom Sawyer. He was living with his aunt Polly. One day, Aunt Polly looked for Tom, but she couldn't find him. She was worried about him. She thought he was lost or badly hurt. When he returned home, Aunt Polly was very angry with him. Tom told her that he was playing games in the forest. Tom apologized for her and promised not to do that again. I like this story very much. It shows that we should care about the feelings of those who care about us.
