Test 1

When I was younger, my favorite toy was my skateboard. I loved going to the park and playing there. My skateboard was black, with orange and yellow stickers on it. It really hurts if you fall off a skateboard! I had to wear a helmet and knee pads. I got my first skateboard when I was eight, and it was quite small.

Test 2

My friend Ali and I were playing in the forest yesterday. It was a lovely afternoon and the sun was shining. We were near my home, and we were hoping to see some interesting animals and birds. We were walking along the path when suddenly we saw a little house in the distance. Ali wanted to look at the house, but I was scared.

Test 3

When I was young, I loved playing with my old action figures. I made up lots of games for them. I didn't have a train set, but my sister had a big doll's house. We both played with it. I don't know where it is now. I found my old rollerblades, though. I wanted to go fast on them, but they were too small.

Test 4

The Cairo Tower is in Cairo, and it is a very famous place. There is a restaurant at the top where people can eat and enjoy the view. The tower is next to the Nile, so you can see the river from there. At night, the tower looks very beautiful and you can enjoy its changing colors. It is amazing!

Test 5

Hani is writing a review about one of Goha's story. In the story, Goha and his son take turns riding the donkey. When they both ride the donkey, people say the donkey must be tired. In the ending of the story, Goha and his son carry the donkey. The story is very funny and teaches a good lesson!

Test 6

When Amina was little, she really liked games. These games used a lot of imagination. She really enjoyed playing outside when she was younger. She was good at making up stories. She liked running, climbing, and playing tennis. She had a doll's house, some cuddly toys, and some action figures. She was quite good at football, too.

Test 7

Ahmed wants to be a guide because he is fascinated by the Ancient Egyptians. The Ancient Egyptians were amazing. They used granite to build the Pyramids. They used gold to make their artifacts. They also used silver to make weapons. Ahmed's favorite subject is history. He studies hard to be a guide when he grows up.

Test 8

Tom's grandparents lived by the sea. The beach near their house was quiet and beautiful, and he loved to go there with them. They swam, surfed, and played games on the sand. One day, they were swimming in the sea when Tom saw a glass bottle in the water. Tom wanted to put it in the trash. But Grandpa saw a piece of paper inside. There was a message in the bottle.

Test 9

You should be polite and kind to your neighbors. Help people who are old or sick. You can volunteer at a local charity event or help out on a community project. Volunteering isn't boring. It's interesting. You can also reduce waste and help the environment. Don't use plastic bags or plastic bottles. Let's all be good citizens and make the world a better place!

Test 10

Tourism is important, but eco-tourism is becoming very popular, too. Eco-tourism is a way of traveling that doesn't damage the environment. It's more sustainable than traditional tourism, and it is designed to protect nature. People stay in simple accommodation, not large hotels, and they mustn't travel in ways that cause lots of pollution. Wildlife watching is ideal for people who respect nature, and eco-tourism is a good way for people to do this.

Test 11

The Ancient Egyptians loved birds, especially falcons and the ibis, which represented wisdom. There are thousands of mummified ibises in Saqqara alone. All these pets weren't only important for the Ancient Egyptians' everyday life – they were also important in the afterlife. It is therefore common to find mummified pets and statues of animals in the tombs.

Test 12

Tamer went to the Museum of Ancient History. He went with his family to see the artifacts. We have so many artifacts in Egypt. One reason is the climate. The hot, dry climate in Egypt helps to preserve the artifacts. The Ancient Egyptians also used materials that could last a long time. That's why they built the Pyramids with granite. Granite is a very hard and durable stone.

Test 13

Ali visited his grandfather yesterday. He went there with his family by train. It was very hot, so on the train, Ali had a glass of water. When Ali arrived, he saw his cousins at their grandfather's house. They ate lunch together. After lunch, Ali and his cousins played hide and seek in the garden. It was really good fun.

Test 14

Fares is in grade four. Fares visited his grandma on the weekend. He found a box of his old toys. He found his rollerblades, which were too small. There was also his old action figure. He loved playing with it. He made up lots of games for it. His favorite toy was his skateboard, and he could really go fast on it.

Test 15

Hani's grandparents lived by the sea. The beach near their house was quiet and beautiful, and he loved to go there with them. They swam, surfed, and played games on the sand. One day, they were swimming in the sea when Hani saw a glass bottle in the water. There was a message in the bottle. It was a message from Tom, and he wrote about his favorite things.
