CHAPTER ONE

1- I'll start by writing about the time when my father owned an inn called the Admiral Benbow, many years ago. I remember the day when a man walked into the inn. He was tall and strong, with an old blue coat and a scar on his face. He looked around him. "This is a nice, quiet place. I'll stay here. Please, take this up to my room," he said, pointing to a large wooden box. "You can call me Captain. And this is for you," he continued, handing my father three or four gold coins. The Captain was usually a quiet man. He spent his days walking on the beach or on the cliffs. When he came back, he always asked, "Did any sailors visit the inn today?" At first, we thought he wanted to find some other sailors, but later we realised that he didn't want any sailors to find him. In the evenings, the Captain sometimes told stories about his time at sea.

2- My father was worried that nobody would want to visit the inn because they would be frightened by the Captain' stories, but I think people liked them. The Captain stayed at the inn for months. He did not give us any more money for his room and my father did not dare to ask him for more.

3- One morning , the Captain went for a walk along the beach. I was helping my mother to make breakfast when another man walked into the inn. He was thin and pale, with three fingers on his left hand. He sat down and asked, "Is this table here for my friend Bill?" I told him that I did not know Bill and said that the table was for the Captain "Well, my friend Bill might say that he's the Captain," he said. "He has a scar on his face "That's right," he replied. "I've found my friend Bill! We've had a lot of adventures since I lost these fingers I left them to talk. Then suddenly there were loud shouts and both men stood up and ran outside. The Captain had a sword and then I saw Black Dog running away with blood on his arm. The man continued running until we could not see him. The Captain walked back into the inn. He looked ill and suddenly he fell over.

4- I thought perhaps he was hurt from the fight. At that moment, the doctor arrived to see my father who was sick. and likes to tell a story. Is that him?" "Yes," I said. "He's gone for a walk." "Which way did he walk?" he asked. I pointed towards the beach. The man stood up and waited by the door for the Captain to return. When the Captain saw the man, he looked pale and ill. "Black Dog!" the Captain said « "Help us, Dr Livesy! The Captain is hurt!" said my mother. The doctor looked at him and said, "He is not hurt, but he is very ill." Help me to take him upstairs." We took the Captain up to his bedroom and the doctor gave him some medicine. The Captain stayed in bed, but he was not quiet. He told me about his travels at sea, and said that he had something which people wanted. "Black Dog is not as bad as some of the other men." he said, "They all want to find me. Tell me if you see them!" That evening, my father died. I felt terrible and forgot all about the strange things that the Captain told me.

5- Then, a week later, I saw a blind man coming down the road towards the inn. He stopped outside the door when he was near and asked, "Where am I? Will a kind person help me?" "You are at the Admiral Benbow Inn in Black Hill Cove." I told him. At that moment, he grabbed my hand. "Take me to the Captain!" he said. "Take me to him now!" I walked with the blind man into the inn and took him to the Captain. The Captain looked very surprised to see him. "Now, Bill, stay where you are. I can hear you. Take this." He then put something in the Captain's hand, turned round and left. The Captain looked at what the man gave him. "Ten o'clock!" he said. "I have time!" Then the Captain suddenly fell to the floor. He was dead. I found my mother and we talked about what we should do. We knew that the Captain had a box in his room and it probably had money in it. The blind man and Black Dog probably wanted this. I thought about taking the box to Dr Livesy, but I did not want to leave my mother. We knew that we were in a danger. We decided to go to the nearest village and ask our neighbours people in the road behind us for help guarding the inn . "Take the money and run," said my mother. "I'm too weak to continue." I did not want to leave her, so we stopped under a bridge, where we could hide in the dark. However, none of the people in the village wanted to help us. They did not come back with us, but one man went to tell Dr Livesy. Another man said that we could have his gun. It was dark when we returned to the inn.

6- We found the key to the box in the captain's jacket. I also saw the message that the blind man gave to the Captain. It said, "You have until ten o'clock tonight." We went upstairs and my mother soon opened the box with the key. Inside, we found some clothes, some guns, some papers and other things. We also found a bag with some coins inside. "We only have time until ten o'clock," I said. "Let's leave before the blind man and Black Dog return." "I'll only take the money which the Captain owes us," my mother said, opening the bag. We stood up to leave, and I decided to take the papers from the box, too. We walked as quickly as we could back towards the village, but as we walked, we heard the sound of people in the road behind us "Take the money and run," said my mother. "I'm too weak to continue." I did not want to leave her, so we stopped under a bridge, where we could hide in the dark.

TREASURE ISLAND

Chapter 2

1- I could see the road from where we were hiding, and soon I saw eight men. One of them was the blind man. I saw them walk down the road to the Admiral Benbow Inn. They were surprised to see that the door was open, then they all ran inside. I heard someone shout, "Bill's dead!"

"Go and find his box," said the blind man.

A little later, a window opened from the Captain's bedroom and a man called out, "Someone has opened the box!"

"Is it there?" said the blind man.

"Only the money is there," replied the man.

"It's the boy and the woman from the inn!" shouted the blind man. "Let's find them!"

The men started to look around the house.

"If you find it you'll all be rich!" said the blind man.

At this time, we heard horses coming down the road. When the men heard the horses, they started to run in all directions.

2- The horses arrived, so I ran out to see who was riding them. One of them was the boy who went to get Dr Livesy, and the rest were policemen. Two men took my mother to the village, where she soon felt better, and the others tried to catch the men. But it was too late: we heard that they escaped on a boat.

I returned to the Admiral Benbow with the police.

"What did they want?" said Mr Dance, the head of the police.

"I think that they wanted this," I said, showing him the papers that I still had in my jacket. "I'd like to take them to Dr Livesy."

"That's a good idea," said Mr Dance. "He's a magistrate as well as a doctor. He'll know what to do. I'll come with you."

We found that Dr Livesy was not at home, but was eating at the house of Mr Trelawney, an important rich man. Mr Trelawney asked us into his house. I showed Mr Trelawney and Dr Livesy the papers that the Captain had in his box.

"I think this might be a clue as to where Flint buried his treasure!" said Dr Livesy.

"That is why those men were not interested in money," agreed Mr Trelawney. "If you are right, we should take the next boat from Bristol and go and find the treasure ourselves!"

"If Jim here agrees," said the doctor, looking at me, "we should look at these papers now."

3- The doctor looked at the papers. Some of them seemed to describe the ships that the Captain and his men had robbed of money. Then we looked at the other papers and saw a map of an island, with a big cross on it next to the words, "most of treasure here."

"Dr Livesy, we should go to Bristol tomorrow," said Mr Trelawney. "In a few days, we'll find the best ship in England. Jim Hawkins here can come as our ship's boy. You can be the ship's doctor."

"I agree," said the doctor, "but those men who tried to find the map will now be looking for us. We are not safe anymore. We must not tell anyone else what we know."

4- It took us longer than we thought to be ready to leave England. While Mr Trelawney prepared for the journey in Bristol, I stayed at Mr Trelawney's house with his servant Redruth and spent hours studying the map, thinking about the treasure that we might find.

One day, a letter was sent to me from Mr Trelawney. It said that a good man called Blandly had a ship called the Hispaniola for us. Trelawney said that he had found a crew ready to work on it. The crew included a man called Long John Silver, who had lost a leg but was a good cook. Silver also knew other men who would join us. Trelawney said that everyone was excited by the thought of the treasure. I was surprised by this, as I thought we had to keep the news of the treasure a secret.

I was very excited by the thought of the journey and I went to say goodbye to my mother at the Admiral Benbow Inn. I was very sad to leave her the next day, when I travelled to Bristol with Redruth. We had just one night in the city before we were going to sail.
